PRESIDENT’S NOTE

We're fast approaching the April Car Show event. Remember this is a club event and there is a lot to do.

Fund raising seems to be the one that everyone shy's away from.

Let's get out there and meet our sponsors and ask them for their help.

You will be surprised how easy it is when you tell them the money is for charity.

Don't forget this is not the Mark and Don Car Show, it's the LAR&C Car show.

EDITOR’S CORNER

January was a slow month. Our Friday Night Fever was rained and chilled out, but due to our President’s hard work, we had a great 3rd Friday Dine Out at Francesco’s Italian Restaurant. Not only does he function as President, but he also puts a lot of effort into this dine out event that we all look forward to. Thanks, Bob. Ron Adwers took some pictures at the recent Mecum Car Auction, so there are a few pics of that event in this issue.

Howdy y’all, our editor Frank has informed me that it’s time for the Ac tiv a tees report.. so here goes.. Starting with Dec.5th Friday Night Fever, we had about 30 cars and the 50/50 brought in $54..108 tickets sold, excellent job, Darlins Cyndy and Keri..... Dec.13th. found the club members at Meadow Lakes Country Club enjoying each others company with laughter and some great food.. Like our esteemed Pres. said if you didn't have fun it was your own fault, He may have said dam fault i'm not sure..Anyway i believe everyone had a great time. January's cruise in was weathered out.

On Jan.13th. at our club meeting which lasted an amazing 33 mins. i talked briefly about this year’s Car Show and about some upcoming cruise ins and a few car shows. emails to follow.

This time of the year kinda holds us down as far as ac tiv a tees go, it should start pickin up so be ready.....luv u all
